SPECIAL POLICE CAUSE TROUBLE

Officers of Department Have Experienced Much Annovance From Their Actions.

One, Who Had Charged Two Women With Robbing Him, Tenders His Resignation and Four Are Suspended.

Officers of the Police Department are experiencing more trouble on account of the 509 emergency specials added to the force for the World's Fair period than they had encountered with all of the regular men in several months.

Chief of Police Kiely especially has been annoyed to no small extent by the actions that exhibitors must positively complete of some of the specials. The Chief declared vesterday, however, after receiving the resignation of one of the new men and suspending four others, that he will maintain the discipline in the department if it takes the head of every emergency man on the force to do it.

Since their appointment, about six of the mergency men have appeared before the olice Board to answer charges and nearly all have been dismissed from the force. Following a complaint which he made gainst Bessie Williams and Grace Shanon, who recently moved into a room on Page near Vandeventer avenue from the red light district, Emergency Special William R. McKenna yesterday morning ten-dered his resignation to Captain O'Malley of the Tenth District. McKenna's resig-nation headed off the suspension which Chief Kiely had decided upon in his case. POLICEMAN MISSED MONEY.

According to the report received by Chief Kiely, McKenna met the Williams and on women in Harry Hanna's saloon at No. 911 Vandeventer avenue. After several drinks were taken by the party Mc-eral drinks were taken by the party McKenna charged the women with stealing is from him. They left the saloon, arguing about the matter.

McKenna summoned Patrolman McMullen of the Ninth District, who arrested the two women and took them to the police station. At that time McKenna seemed sure that the women had taken his money, which, he said, consisted of one & and seven it bills.

Later, accompanied by Hannan, McKenna appeared at the police station, where Hannan tendered to the deak sergeant is, saying the bartender had found it on the floor. The money was not of the same denominations as that lost by McKenna.

Hannan explained this, however, by saying that the bartender had thrown it into the cash register, where it got mixed with the other money. McKenna then said that he would not prosecute the women, as he was not sure that they had taken his money. The women were booked for the police court, instead of a larceny charge.

Captain Gaffney has informed the women that they must move from Page avenue.

McKenna yesterday morning walked en that they must move irota rage actions.

McKenna yesterday morning walked into Captain O'Malley's office, laid down his manual, star and patrol-box key, and remarked that he was tired of being a policeman and would quit.

Charged with coaduct unbecoming an officer. Emergency Specials William Walsh and William Ahring will appear before the Police Board to-morrow. Behind this technical charge is an interesting story.

According to evidence gathered by Captain Johnson of the Fourth District Walsh and Ahring boarded a Cass avenue car Monday night and started home.

PULLED THE BELL CORD. PULLED THE BELL CORD.

One of them-the conductor of the car says it was Walsh-insisted upon pulling the bell cord. The conductor strated, angry words passed and the conductor soon found himself in a battle with ductor soon found himself in a battle with the policemen, who were in full uniform. The conductor was knocked from the platform while the car was running. One of the policemen, it is charged, gave the signal for the car to go ahead. A citizen pulled the bell cord and stopped the car. The conductor, who was not badly hurt, ran and caught up with his car. Then the policemen arrested him. They took him to a patrol box. The Sergeant in charge of the station, not liking the way the men talked over the phone when they called for the pairol wagon, asked questions which finally led to an order for the policemen to release the conductor and permit him to go to the car sheds. The conductor reported to the Transit Company the treatment accorded him, and a complaint was lodged with Chief Kiely by General Manager McCulloch.

Captain Pickel of the Fifth District suppended Emergency Special Michael J. Heely, who will go before the Police Board to-morrow charged with appearing at roll call at II o'clock yesterday morning while intexicated.

Albert Wetnel, who was indicted Tuesday on the charge of making a false affidavit, was suspended by Captain Johnson of the Fourth District yesterday, under orders from Chief Kiely. The board probably will not act in Wetzel's case until he is tried by court. policemen, who were in full uniform

METHODISTS ENTHUSED BY SOUTHERNER'S ADDRESS

The Reverend J. C. Kilgore Electrifies Delegates to General Conference-Little Business Done.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 11.—Practically no business was transacted by the Methodist General Conference to-day. The early morning session was devoted entirely to a consideration of the report of the Committee on Rules as reported by the Reverend Doctor T. B. Neely, chair-

The reading and debating of the various sections governing the manner of trans-acting business on the floor of the consections governing the manner or transacting business on the floor of the conference, and the reference of motions and resolutions to committees, took up the time of the conference until recess, at which time the report was left unfinished.
There were many sharp passages at arms between the parliamentary experts, which somewhat enivened an otherwise dull and featureless session.

After recess the duty of receiving and welcoming fraternal delegates, which was not completed at yesterday's session, was taken up, and long addresses were made by the Reverend William Dodson, fraternal delegate from Canada, and the Reverend J. C. Kilgore of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Doctor Kilgore aroused the enthusiasm of the delegates to a degree not before reached in the General Conference by his eloquent peroration, in which he asserted that no one could love the Stara and
